

Chief Water Plant Operator - The Town of Falmouth, MA has an immediate opening for a qualified individual to manage the daily operations and maintenance of its Grade D4 / T2 municipal water treatment plants, pump stations and related facilities. Duties include the supervision of up to ten employees; ensuring the water treatment systems, pumping stations and storage facilities operate in compliance with all requirements; troubleshooting equipment and system problems; using SCADA system to monitor and optimize system performance; ensuring inspections, cleaning, and maintenance tasks are conducted; preparing written work procedures; seeking cost estimates for goods and services; preparation of reports to regulatory agencies regarding water treatment operations. Reports to the Water Superintendent.

Requirements include:

- Associates degree in biology, chemistry, engineering or related field with direct relevance to water treatment operations
- At least 7 years of experience in utility operations, some of which are in water treatment operations and at least 5 of which are in direct-responsible charge of a water treatment facility
- Or any equivalent combination of education and experience
- Possession of a valid Massachusetts Board of Certification of Operators license T-2 (Full)
- Possession of a Class C or higher Commercial Drivers License

Salary Range $58,219. - $ 74,110.

Please forward resume to falhr@falmouthmass.us or mail it to Personnel Office, 59 Town Hall Sq., Falmouth, MA 02540. The Town of Falmouth is an Equal Opportunity Employer.