

Chief Water Operator

Chatham, MA

Weston & Sampson Services is currently looking for a Chief Water Operator for the Chatham MA project with a minimum of 5 years of experience.

What you'll do:

- Responsible for overall management of the Chatham water system that involves following sampling programs and standard operating procedures for operating and maintaining water systems in accordance with Massachusetts regulations
- Preparing monthly reports for the water systems along with DEP/client interface is required
- Oversee the entire water project, including managing a staff of 5 and ensuring annual contract deliverables are met
- Including, but not limited to, backflow device testing, meter reading, inspections, Dig Safe, hydrant and valve maintenance, subcontracted repair coordination, flushing, fire-flow testing, shut-offs, customer complaints, leak detection, surveys, meter installation and removal, treatment operation, sampling, etc.

What you'll bring:

- High school diploma or equivalent is required.
- MA D3 and T2 drinking water license is required
- Knowledge of MA DEP regulations and of Operation and Maintenance planning is desirable
- Prior utilization of an asset/work order management system is a plus
- Good written and verbal communication skills
- Knowledge and familiarity with computers in a Windows-based environment
- Ability to climb ladders and lift a minimum of 50 lbs.
- Must have valid driver's license

Please apply directly at <https://careers-wseinc.icims.com/jobs/2923/water-operator/job>